CSE 1st grade students

CSE students joined staff and parents to Develop ideas about how they can succeed and reach for the stars in reading, math, and writing. Students brainstormed the following ideas to make connections between learning at home and school:

I will practice reading to improve my reading fluency.

I will practice math operations at home.

Comments and/or suggestions are welcome at any time of the year. We want to be in contact with you. Please feel free to request a conference with your child's teacher or administrator by calling 706-866-6640.

CSE 1st grade teachers

1st grade teachers will work with students and their families to support student success in reading, math, and writing. Some of the key connections with families will be:

We will send home weekly passages to develop reading fluency.

We will send home a list of free math apps to practice math strategies and practice fluency.

At home: parents

CSE parents joined staff to develop ideas for how families can support student success.

I will listen to my child read every night for 20 minutes.

I will attend conferences regarding my child's academic performance.

I will help my child with his math homework and use materials to explore math at home.

Stay in contact with my child's teacher through reminders, phone calls, emails, face to face, attend Tribe "A" meetings regarding my child's academic achievements in reading/math/ELA.
